

Philosophy

The philosophy of our services is that prevention and treatment are both important in addressing problems related to substance use disorders. We believe that prevention can be effective in early education and continuing education programs. Intervention through treatment is needed where addiction is already present. Substance use disorders result in physical, mental, emotional, social and spiritual problems for individuals and families. Through early intervention and treatment, the program aims to impact problems of substance use disorders on the personal, family and community level. Individual, group, couple and family education and treatment is utilized to intervene and promote a healthy lifestyle.

Eligibility

Individuals with a history of substance use disorders are eligible for services. Residents of Clinton, Eaton, Ingham and Gratiot counties are the program's target population.

Fees

We accept Medicaid, Medicare and private pay clients. A sliding fee scale allows individuals to obtain services based on ability to pay. Clients may fit criteria for services paid through the Coordinating Agency and other sources will be assessed at intake for funding.

All SAS programs are smoke free environments.
