

“Life’s Way”

By Leona Oakes

Life is what you make it, this is what I’ve found,

When I was just a little girl, I learned the world was round.

I also learned at an early age life had its ups and downs.

I could not believe how bad it hurt as I went along my way,

The disappointments and then the joys that made a happy day.

The happiness and wonders I was able to attain,

Through tears and strife and work so hard,

I’ve traveled far and long and here I still remain.

One day in the future I will catch the final train,

I will find that grand and glorious place they call the end of the line.
